

October 13, 2011 09:00 AM Pacific Time

Summit Bank Announces a New Senior Vice President to Establish a New Mortgage Division

OAKLAND, Calif.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Summit Bank is proud to announce that Mr. P.L. "Chris" Brothers joined Summit Bank as Senior Vice President. He has been hired to set up a New Mortgage Division. This will be the first time Summit Bank has offered mortgages in its 29 year history. Chairman Shirley Nelson says, "Mr. Brothers brings with him strong lending skills and a thorough knowledge that we have looked for and we are looking forward to working with him as he starts this new division of Summit Bank."

"Mr. Brothers brings with him strong lending skills and a thorough knowledge that we have looked for and we are looking forward to working with him as he starts this new division of Summit Bank."

Mr. Brothers is a Finance Graduate from the University of Notre Dame. He is the Founder and Owner of Grant Financial Services, specializing in Real Estate Lending.

Prior to Grant Financial, Mr. Brothers started Mortgage operations for the Bank of Contra Costa, Chartered Bank of London and the Bank of Walnut Creek.

Summit Bank will be offering a wide range of Real Estate Loans, including Reverse Mortgages.

Contacts

Summit Bank

Shirley Nelson, 510-839-8800